

TRANSBIG Traineeship Programme
Call for applications - 2010

Description of available position

Name of the host institute
BIG / TRANSBIG Headquarters
Location of the traineeship
c/o Institut Jules Bordet, Blvd de Waterloo 121, 7 th fl., 1000 Brussels, Belgium
Title of the project
Clinical and translational research in the setting of multinational and multicentric networks. The BIG and TRANSBIG networks and its major projects (e.g., the MINDACT trial).
Aim of the project
The aim is to get the trainee acquainted with translational research and to help him/her understand how multinational and multicentric networks work together.
Fellowship duration
1 year, starting in October 2010
Ideal candidate
Foreign physician who has been recently board-certified in medical oncology, highly motivated to run research projects in the field of breast cancer. Perfect knowledge of written / spoken English / some knowledge of French (optional). Preliminary experience in the area of cancer research.
Role of the trainee
The trainee will be involved in: - coordination of international prospective trials in breast cancer; - grant writing and reporting; - translational research projects; - writing of abstracts, manuscripts and book chapters; - cutting-edge laboratory work (optional).
Traineeship supervision
Direct supervision: Fatima Cardoso (on a daily basis) and Carolyn Straehle (for any BIG related projects) Tutor: Martine Piccart (on a 2-weekly basis)