

1st ECCO Policy Workshop on Multidisciplinary Cancer Care: Essential requirements to improve oncology outcomes

In collaboration with the European School of Oncology (ESO)

31 October 2018 | University Foundation, Brussels

Final Programme

- 09:30-10:00 Registration
- 10:00-10:15 Welcome and introductory remarks
Prof Peter Naredi, European CanCer Organisation (ECCO)
Dr Alberto Costa, European School of Oncology (ESO)
- 10:15-10:30 What is quality cancer care from a patient's perspective?
Dr Ian Banks, ECCO Patient Advisory Committee
- 10:30-10:45 Who delivers quality cancer care: The multidisciplinary team?
Prof Philip Poortmans, European CanCer Organisation (ECCO)
Johan De Munter, European Oncology Nursing Society (EONS)
- 10:45-11:00 EU overview on quality cancer care
Dr Elke Anklam, Joint Research Center, European Union
- 11:00-11:15 The contribution of national level to quality cancer care in Europe: The example of Innovative Partnership for Action Against Cancer (iPAAC)
Dr Tit Albreht, National Institute of Public Health, Slovenia
- 11:15-11:30 Coffee break
- 11:30-11:45 How do we measure and evaluate quality cancer care?
Simon Oberst, Organisation of European Cancer Institutes (OEI)
- 11-45-12:00 How do we know if quality cancer care is being achieved?
Geoffrey Henning, EuropaColon

12:00-13:00 Panel discussion on challenges in implementation of quality cancer care

Moderators:

Prof Philip Poortmans, European Cancer Organisation (ECCO)

Dr Alberto Costa, European School of Oncology (ESO)

Panelists:

Dr William Allum, European Society of Surgical Oncology (ESSO): Oesophageal and gastric cancers

Prof Piotr Rutkowski, European Organisation for Research and Treatment of Cancer (EORTC): Melanoma

Dr Laura Biganzoli, European Society of Breast Cancer Specialists (EUSOMA): Breast cancer

Prof Maurizio Brausi, European Association of Urology (EAU): Prostate cancer

Dr Matti Aapro, European School of Oncology (ESO): Lung cancer

13:00-14:00 Lunch (Buffet)

14:00-14:20: Integration of cancer care: The essential requirements

Dr Tit Albreht, National Institute of Public Health, Slovenia

14:20-14:40: Quality in cancer care

Dr Matti Aapro, European School of Oncology (ESO)

14:40-15:00: Survivorship: The next frontier of cancer care improvement

Prof Françoise Meunier, European Organisation for Research and Treatment of Cancer (EORTC)

15:00-15:15 Q&A

15:15-15:30 Summary and Conclusions

Prof Philip Poortmans, European Cancer Organisation (ECCO)

Dr Alberto Costa, European School of Oncology (ESO)

Geoffrey Henning, EuropaColon